HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1945

NUMBER 15

$318.45 From Hamlin

The Hamlin Herald
Hamlin, Texas
Dear Sir:

We wish to thank the organizations, the school, and the business men who made possible the success of the local 1945 Infantile Paralysis Campaign. Some $318.45 being reported so far from Hamlin.

Inasmuch as the last case of infantile paralysis treated from the Jones County Chapter was from Hamlin, we are glad that we were able to serve everyone who made application for assistance in the county last year. And through your generous contributions, we shall probably have enough to serve for 1945.

In grateful appreciation for your efforts,

Mrs. V. R. Bond, County Co-chairman of Women's Organizations and Local Chairman; C. W. Bartlett, County Chapter Chairman.

NEW TREASURER APPOINTED FOR JONES COUNTY CHAPTER AMERICAN RED CROSS

Byron Lewis, of Stamford, County Chairman of the Jones County Chapter, American Red Cross, has announced that Mrs. Grace Wilcox has been appointed Treasurer of this Chapter, succeeding Mrs. Thelma Gray who served as Treasurer for approximately one year and nine months.

Nightwatchman C. R. Branscum is back from the Rotan hospital after being there all last week with a light case of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morton made a trip to Colorado City Sunday afternoon to visit their son, Hubert Morton, and wife, who are teachers there. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Boyd.

The following additional workers from Jones County were hired the past week in this office by war industrial employers:

Bobby J. Liles	Walter Burrs
Ollie D. Boiles	Herman Rister
Douglas Garrett	Wayne Lollar
Leon Chase	Dennis Johnson

Yours truly,
E. J. Berry, Area Director
War Manpower Commission.

Waste Paper Collection Over Four Tons

The Hamlin Public School collection of waste paper amounted to four and three-fourths tons. The drive for this war's most critical material began in Hamlin on January 20 and continued for two weeks, including three Saturdays.

Logan Smith, Hamlin High School principal, directed the work.

Trucks for the Saturday pick-ups were furnished by Ed Bailey, J. Ubben, Abney Daniels, and A. Hackley.

The proceeds of this waste paper sale amounted to approximately $33.00 and will be distributed to school classes actively taking part in the collection.

The City Barn, just east of the old City Hall, was used as storage depot, and city officials, including J. H. Foster, City Marshall, and Mr. Millhorn, were active in promoting the success of the drive.

The drive was sponsored by The Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Elliott and their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Hallmark, attended the graduation at the Lubbock Army Air Field last week when their son, Lt. J. R. Elliott, Jr., received his wings and his commission in the Air Corps. Lt. Elliott, wife, and baby returned home with them for a visit before reporting to Yuma, Arizona, for further training.

Expression of Thanks

We want to express our thanks and appreciation to all our friends for the kindness and sympathy that were shown us during the illness and at the death of our dear mother.

Thomas, John, Isom, and Chunky Brown; Mrs. C. D. Jones, and Mrs. M. E. Land.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Jackson, who have been living in Plasterco, left Tuesday for their farm home eight miles west of Floydada. Mr. Jackson owns two nice tracts of land near Floydada, but he says he has his land rented out, and he is planning to take things easy, raise a few chickens and enjoy some of the advantages of a real farm life. Mr. Jackson has been employed by the Texas Cement Plaster Co. for 24 years and 8 months.

Mrs. Elizabeth Coble, of Lubbock, was a guest from Friday until Sunday of Miss Marguerite Nobles.

FIVE FATALLY BURNED IN RECENT HASKELL FIRE

Mrs. A. C. Robertson, a sister of Mrs. Sid Liles, died of burns when fire destroyed the Robertson home near Haskell Tuesday night of last week. Others fatally burned at the time were the husband, A. C. Robertson, Mrs. Lee Brown, and Mrs. Harris Robertson and baby. The husband of Mrs. Harris Robertson is with the armed forces on Luzon.

Mr. and Mrs. Liles attended the funerals which were held in Haskell, three on Saturday and two on Monday.

Six others are hospitalized because of burns received at the same time.

MRS. D. E. ANDRESS RECEIVES LETTER FROM DUDE'S BUDDY

Mrs. D. E. Andress recently received a letter written by a buddy of her son, Cpl. Dulan (Dude) Andress who was killed in action in Italy, June 1, 1944. We reproduce a part of the letter written from Detroit:

"You don't know how glad I am to hear from you. As you know, Dude was the best friend I had in the army, and I miss him so much. We used to confide all our troubles to one another and of all the boys I have seen killed, his being gone has done more to me than all the rest. I just don't seem to be able to get it off my mind. I dream of it all the time. Of course it was a terrible battle and I'll never be able to forget some of the scenes.

"Yes, Dude was killed instantly. He never knew who shot him. He was killed three minutes after I was shot. They put his body in the same ambulance with me, so they could send it back for decent burial. I believe that is one of the reasons I can't forget it. So after all, I was with him as long as possible and I know there was no one of his friends over there he would have rather had. Everyone thought so much of him. He was always in good spirits and kept everyone else the same way.

"I am in business here in Detroit. My health is very bad, but I manage to keep going... Lyman."

To a broken-hearted mother almost any word from one who was present when her son was cut down in battle is comforting. We Hamlin people will remember that Dude Andress carried a happy spirit all the time, and it would have been just like him if he could have had a few minutes before death to joke about his wounds.

Hamlin's Cold Storage Locker Plant Ready

This week Ye Editor visited the Phelps Ice Co. Cold Storage Locker Plant in Hamlin that is now about ready for customers to begin using.

The development of this plant has been dragging along for a "spell," being delayed mostly for the lack of materials and for want of mechanics. In our inspection, we found several men, who seemed to know their business, installing the lockers. These lockers consist of both the drawer and the cabinet style, and all are ample in space for any ordinary family. We noted the convenient arrangements and accessibility of every locker. Not everyone, however, can have a choice position. We understand that those who signed up first for lockers will draw for their boxes this Saturday. There will be a few for rent, which are not yet spoken for.

In looking at this modern "food-saving-keeping" plant, we could imagine how fortunate that family will be this summer, in case ice is scarce, or maybe have more fresh vegetables that would soon be gone, unless for this cold storage facility. We are guessing that ere long there will be more calls for lockers than there will be space to get. The more the customers learn how to use the lockers, the more they will appreciate them; and there is a lot to learn.

The Phelps Ice Co. is using the former storage room of the West Texas Utilities Company, and much of the building and accommodations were already intact. Mr. Baucum, who has been the local manager for Phelps Ice Co., will manage the Cold Storage and at the same time continue to distribute ice. And so this is one more convenience of modern life that "old guys" did not have in the "good old years, of long ago." Congratulations, everybody!

Musical Star Featured With Birch, Magician

MABEL SPERRY

When Birch, Master Magician appears at the Hamlin High School Auditorium next Tuesday—Matinee 3:00 P. M. and 8:00 P. M. evening, he will present not only startling feats of spectacular magic, but also brings a sparkling program that is varied with several distinct features.

Heading the Birch staff of assisting artists is Mabel Sperry, brilliant young musical star. This charming young lady was featured as xylophone soloist with the 100-piece Marimba band at the Century of Progress, Chicago. She is well known in the concert and radio world as an artist of unusual ability, and critics hail her as the world's greatest girl xylophonist.

Her specially built Marimba-Xylophone, which was planned by an expert designer, is without question the most beautiful instrument of its kind ever produced. It is not only a triumph of tone and tuning, but an artistic achievement as well.

Don't fail to hear this talented musician and her "Marvelous Melodies" at the Birch magical performance in Hamlin, next Tuesday, February 13.

Sunday afternoon and supper guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gregory were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gallaway of Merkel; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gregory and daughter, Gladys, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott of Nienda; Cpl. J. E. Scarborough of Camp Wolters, and Mrs. J. E. Scarborough and Miss Marie Gregory who are employed in Dallas.

Mrs. W. B. Cotten who has been in the Rotan hospital is at home and is much improved.

Roger F. Pitcock Wounded In Belgium

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pitcock received a message on January 25 that their son, Pvt. Roger F. Pitcock, with the Third Army in Belgium, was slightly wounded on January 10. It would seem that so many days had elapsed between the day he was wounded and the time the message arrived that his wounds are not serious, or something later would be heard. Let's hope he is not badly wounded.

Roger entered service in January 1942, spent 16 months in New Foundland, a year in the States, and was sent overseas last fall.

SGT. J. T. COUNTS AWARDED COMBAT DECORATION FOR FIGHTING IN ITALY

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, Italy. —Sergeant J. T. Counts, son of Mrs. Irene D. Counts, Route 4, Hamlin, Texas, has been cited by the 338th Infantry Regiment of the 85th "Custer" Division and awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for actual participation in combat against the enemy with Lieutenant General Lucian K. Truscott, Jr.'s Fifth Army in Italy.

Standards for the badge are high. The decoration is awarded to the infantry soldier who has proved his fighting ability in combat.

The handsome badge consists of a silver rifle set against a background of infantry blue, enclosed in a silver wreath. (Passed by the Field Press Censor.)

Mrs. M. Y. Wilson, Jr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, of Mobile, Ala., are here to visit Lt. Wilson's mother, Mrs. M. Y. Wilson.

Call 241 and tell us your news.

CONGRESS is mighty smart, but there are a lot of American people who think most of them are making a fool of themselves, just monkey-fuddling politicians. We wonder where some of them put their food. In fact, we believe there is more pure hell and spite being played in our Congress these days than in any other place of the same number of men any where else in the world.

THE BEST speech made in Congress by anyone, in a long time, came from the lips of a former soldier officer who fought in Italy, and was fighting when his friends put him up as a candidate for Congress against the big land baron, Dick Kleburg, down the King Ranch way. His name will grow, for he has enough "guts" to "talk plain," while his buddies are dying. His name is John E. Lyle, Representative from the Corpus Christi district. Yes, he made a speech, and why not? He wears on his breast the Purple Heart; and why should such a man be timid? Go to it, Congressman Lyle; we are for you and all the boys you fought and bled with. Let's quote a few lines of what he said:

"Sir, these hands are bloody with the blood of American soldiers that have been picked up during the past year who know the price of victory.

"And I see crosses before me of American boys bearing names of men who could fill these empty seats one by one.

"I have seen great American bombers burst in a thousand burning pieces and have looked up and counted the parachutes. When there were only eight, and there should have been 10, then you know the price of liberty. When you see the white crosses one by one, then you know where American mothers' hearts are.

Any of you Pipers who once carried the ball for Grigg may write him at UNNTS, 12th Batt., Great Lakes, Ill., and let him hear how you are kicking the Japs and Germans around. He sends a clipping from the Chicago Daily News showing that the crazy Yanks are still trying to keep the fires of slurs and hate burning, now especially while our boys are in iced land of uprightness. Grigg, pay no attention to the "danyankees;" that gotch-eyed writer is trying to spring something just to entertain the guys up that way who have never seen the beauties of the South nor felt the human warmth that rules every nook of this fair land. ## Our thanks to a Country Editor

You get a pretty good view of the world from a small-town newspaper office. Sometimes you see things that other folks overlook. For instance, this frank statement by the editor of The Dierks (Arkansas) Banner:

The Banner is one of the last papers in the country to raise its subscription price. Many over the U. S. have done so a year or more ago. The cost of practically everything that goes into the production of a newspaper has advanced, except electricity used in running the machinery and lighting the plant. In normal times there was little if any profit in subscriptions at $1.00 a year. If the information contained in even a newspaper publication

We're grateful to the editor for pointing out a fact more and more people are realizing—that at a time when most things are scarce and expensive, electricity is still plentiful and cheap.

That just goes to show what companies like ours can do for you by hard work and experience and sound business management.

Red Cross Plea For More Army Nurses

The following is information received by the Stamford Red Cross office from Basil O'Connor, Chairman of the American Red Cross:

The Surgeon General of the Army has again appealed to me to urge an immediate, maximum Red Cross effort to secure the 10,000 additional nurses which the Army requested of us in October. Rapidly mounting casualties make it imperative that these nurses be procured at once or many of our wounded will be deprived of essential nursing care. Eleven Army hospital units about to go overseas are being sent without any nurses. This is an unprecedented event in this war. The people of the country do not appreciate the extreme gravity of the situation and the efforts they can make to relieve it.

Listed below are ten ways to release nurses for military service:

1. Work in a hospital at any type of housekeeping duties.
2. Remember hospital beds are at a premium. Defer a nonessential operation when your doctor asks you to do so.
3. Save the nurse's time at the hospital by asking for only necessary service.

4. Do not employ a special nurse except for critical illness.
5. Become a U. S. Cadet nurse, if you are eligible.
6. Become a Red Cross nurse's aid, if there is a program in your community. If you are a trained aide, serve at least ten hours every week.
7. Learn how to take care of members of your own family. Take a Red Cross Home Nursing Course.
8. Guard your own health. Don't take useless risks.
9. Urge every nurse and retired nurse not eligible for military service to take an essential nursing job to fill up the ranks on the civilian front.
10. Seek out every nurse classified as available for military service. Urge her to apply at once to the American Red Cross or to wire collect the Surgeon General of the Army.

Only graduate nurses are accepted by the Army and Navy, yet every one can help to make it possible for a graduate nurse to serve.

If you know anyone who is willing to help or any nurse who is eligible for military service, please contact your Home Nursing Chairman of Jones County, Mrs. George Zachery, Stamford, Texas.

Cong. Lyle

vote for or against this bill you get out from under this artillery barrage of pros and cons, that you crawl on your belly into a foxhole with mortar fire all over you and the clattering of machine guns in your ears and think about it for a moment or two.

"I have searched this bill from beginning to end, Mr. Chairman, but cannot find in it one single phrase that says that American labor must go to work under machine gun fire, or artillery fire, or mortar fire; that when his buddy with whom he is walking drops he does not have time to pick him up. I find in this bill not one word which says to American Labor that it has got to live in the cold, in the bitterness and the bloodiness of battle.

"When the American soldier is told to pick up a machine gun, I want him to be able to reach back and get hold of a gun.

"When you vote for this measure, of course you will have to do something you do not like to do. I love liberty, freedom, and justice. I had the privilege and honor of offering my life, and when the American soldiers know that America has the same courage that they have they will be heartened..."

SPEAKING of Labor: Last week was in Hamlin, peddling magazine subscriptions. Wonder how many mothers, wives, sisters, and maybe babies, pondered in their hearts why such manpower is not doing something to help our boys win the war? Oh, some may say, he may have been a recent soldier, carrying a blue wound near his heart. If so, he again does himself a discredit in not letting such be known. We do not need any able-bodied man or woman sissifying away their time right now.

Natural Gas is produced in every principal region of Texas as indicated by shaded areas. Experts estimate known reserves sufficient for several generations. First produced and used in Texas at Corsicana, natural gas has since 1901 developed into one of the state's major resources. It has brought wealth to the state in direct proportion to the development and expansion of markets for its use.

Making Ready to Help Texas' Postwar Industrial Development

Lone Star built the state's first long natural gas pipeline, Petrolia to Fort Worth, in 1910, and thereby secured a market for land and royalty owners. Throughout the years Lone Star has taken leading part in the development and conservation of Texas' natural gas resources. Now it is gathering data about new uses of natural gas in industry for the consideration of industrialists who may be planning to move plants to Texas because supplies of this matchless fuel are assured for a long time into the future.

THIS section of the "Arsenal of Democracy" relies heavily on the facilities of Lone Star Gas Company. In many plants along its lines, natural gas is proving itself the superior industrial fuel in the most trying crucible—war. Plant managers are finding natural gas is better when time is precious, when speed, quantity and quality are urgent. In these plants Gas flames are glowing with a promise of victory.

Back to peace and with this experience natural gas will prove a profitable partner in post-war production. So Lone Star's Industrial Department is making ready now plans to help in the industrial development of Texas. In helping to attract new industries to the state and in studying ways to widen the use of natural gas in manufacturing processes, Lone Star likes to feel that it is helping to create new wealth for Texas by enlarging the market for the substantial quantities of natural gas available.

But it wasn't so extravagant as it seemed. Hats were bigger then—and also fewer. Mother's hand-made mauve velour was good for several seasons.

Today, Mother's hat bills may total as much or more than the price of that quaint old velour. But she gets many more hats for her money.

It's much the same with electric bills. If yours seem about the same as they did years ago, it's because you are enjoying so many more electric conveniences now. And you're getting far more electricity for your money than you ever did before—about twice as much today as you did 15 years ago.

Not only has the price of electricity come down steadily through the years, but it has stayed down while war sent other costs climbing.

Hard work and good business management by your friends in this company will continue to make electricity dependable, cheap—one of the big bargains of all time.

MARTIN McCAIN JOINS ANOTHER BIG BANK

Our friend, Martin McCain, of Houston, sends up a "speck" of his cash for the Hamlin Herald for 1945 and with it, a very nice long letter that makes Ye Editor feel as if he had heard from a brother. You see, Martin was formerly a neighbor here in Hamlin and Cashier of the First National Bank (in that day) and for many reasons we retain our friendship-fellowship. Well, sir, after serving several years as a State Banking Examiner, McCain settled in Houston and became an official in the Guardian Trust Company, a big banking firm with $600,000 capital and a surplus of the same proportions. In his letter to us last week, he said, "Maybe you would be interested in knowing that I have accepted a new position. On January 9 I was elected a Vice President of the South Texas Commercial National Bank." He enclosed a statement which shows his new banking firm to have a capital stock of two million dollars and a surplus of the same figures with bank deposits totaling $99,266,840.13. So it is clear the former young banker of Hamlin has been engulfed in the ocean of finance beyond our thinking. But there is one redeeming feature: Down in the hearts of the McCain's, they have this kind of feeling: "We enjoy living in Houston but shall always have a warm spot in our hearts for Hamlin and Jones and Fisher Counties and for the fine folks who live there and we do wish it were possible to see our old friends more frequently." So after all, there creeps something into every heart that is more valuable than money. Congratulations, Martin, in your new banking position.

THE SINS THAT CRUCIFIED JESUS

"Then released he unto them Barabbas; but Jesus he scourged and delivered to be crucified." Matt. 27:26.

"Then therefore he delivered him unto them to be crucified." John 19:16.

We are accustomed to looking upon the "crucifixion of Jesus" as one great tragic act. No one can look back to the cross and read what inspiration has penned but that he can see many sins connected with the crucifixion of Jesus. Everyone condemns all who took part in the crucifixion. To be consistent, one must condemn the same sins today. Every sin that helped to bring about the crucifixion of Jesus may be found in our Generation.

1. THE SIN OF IGNORANCE

This sin had its place in the crucifixion of Jesus. On the cross Jesus prayed, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." (Luke 23:34). After the resurrection, Peter said: "Brethren, I know that in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers." (Acts 3:17). Their sin was a willful sin; they were willfully ignorant. Jesus said of some of them: "For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, their eyes they have closed; less haply they should perceive with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and should turn again, and I should heal them." (Matt. 13:15). This sin of ignorance is with us today. People should know the plan of salvation. The New Testament is with us. People can read it and learn what God would have us to do to be saved. But they will not read, and they will not study. Let us be consistent and condemn that sin of ignorance today as severely as we do the sin of ignorance at the crucifixion.

2. THE SIN OF HATRED OF GOOD

Jesus "went about doing good." (Acts 10:38). He did nothing but that which was good. Jesus was the exponent of truth, righteousness, and good. The devil is opposed to all of these; hence, he attempted to destroy Jesus. The same warfare continues with us. Evil is still opposed to good; error to truth. Again, let us be consistent in condemning the hatred of good. It helped to crucify Jesus, and it helps to destroy truth and righteousness today.

3. THE SIN OF ENVY

When Jesus was brought before Pilate, Matthew says: "For he knew that for envy they had delivered him up." (Matt. 27:18). They were envious of Jesus, and through their envy they cried: "Crucify him." The sin of envy has cursed every generation down through the ages. It has even cursed the church of our Lord. Men and women are envious of each other; and seek to destroy the influence of each other. Let us be consistent and condemn this sin everywhere.

4. THE SIN OF RELIGIOUS PREJUDICE

This sin had its place in the crucifixion of Jesus. Those who persecuted Him and cried for His crucifixion were religious people. They had prejudice against Jesus. He condemned their errors and their religious traditions. They did not like this. They loved their traditions more than they did the truth of God. They were willing to destroy Him because He would not endorse their religion. The sin of religious prejudice has cursed people down through each generation. It is one of the common sins of today. Why condemn this sin in the crucifixion of Jesus and not condemn it today?

5. THE SIN OF LYING

"Now the chief priests and the whole council sought false witness against Jesus, that they might put him to death." (Matt. 26:59). They did not want the truth; they wanted "false witnesses"—that is witnesses that would bear false testimony. This sin of lying has cursed the generations of man to the present time. Let us condemn it wherever it is found.

6. THE SIN OF THE LOVE OF MONEY

Judas betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver. (Matt. 26:15) "For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil." (I Tim. 6:10). This sin is present today. We must be consistent and condemn this sin everywhere.

7. THE SIN OF MORAL WEAKNESS

Pilate knew that Jesus was innocent. (Luke 23:13-15). He had the power to release him. In fact, Pilate desired to release Jesus. (Verse 20). However, he was too weak to do that which he knew he ought to do. He could have acted firmly, but he sacrificed his principles of Honor and acted as a moral coward. Many know what they ought to do today in obedience to God, but they are not strong enough to do it.

WHERE WOULD YOU HAVE BEEN AT THE CRUCIFIXION OFF JESUS! May we as a nation turn to God and save a fair land for ourselves and our posterity and last but by no means least our souls and the souls of our neighbors.

Comment No. 1:

It is difficult to tell just who is getting the most publicity these days—Jesse Jones, Henry Wallace, Blaze the Bull dog, or the boys fighting on Luzon and in Germany.

Why a few Senators and Representatives will raise all kinds of "hades" about the President's appointments is beyond us. The President must have been doing all right for the past twelve years as was shown by the voters who again and again went to the polls and said, "We want Roosevelt."

Mr. Jesse Jones is a Texan, but that doesn't keep him from being for Big Business. Mr. Wallace has proved in the past that he has the laboring man and the little fellow at heart. Isn't it about time that the working man throw off the yoke and get in the money? Down in Old Mexico are peons who work fifteen hours per day for barely enough to keep them alive. There are so-called big shots in this country who would like to have such labor here. There will be no Peace until the leaders of the world are made to realize that a fair distribution of wealth among all citizens is a necessity to the welfare of all mankind.

In Mr. Jesse Jones' opinion, he is the only man born of woman who can handle the job as Secretary of Commerce. We wonder how the United States managed to survive before Jesse came along.

Naturally, we are for Texas and Texans, but we are gonna' have to admit that there are a few Texans in Washington who should be sent back to the farm and the farm should be in Kansas.

Washington said: "Few men have virtue to withstand the highest bidder."

Outdoing Aladdin

The most common things in life are often the most essential, although few people realize it. The war has brought this fact out in bold relief and proved that our everyday necessities are more valuable than gold.

For instance, a sack of flour, a ham, a quarter of beef or a ton of coal, have a value far beyond gold—they will sustain life, gold will not.

Bituminous coal, for example, means power and heat—primary necessities in sustaining life. Coal has become such a dramatic part of our nation's welfare that a motion picture has been cast around it, titled, "Power Unlimited."

The wizards of modern chemistry have created more magic from a lump of coal than Aladdin ever dreamed of. Coal dust has been turned into diaphanous gowns. Soot has been transformed into a major ingredient of the most delicate perfume. Drugs, cosmetics, dyes and countless daily necessities now stem from the lowly lump of bituminous coal.

No greater testimonial can be offered as to the genius and initiative of American enterprise, than the metamorphosis it has worked in the production and use of coal.

Mrs. J. W. Ezell has been in Lubbock this week visiting her brother and family.

Mrs. M. C. Wilson is taking treatment in the Stamford Hospital.

The never-ending cycle: More laws, more lawbreakers; more lawbreakers, more laws.

TEXANS IN THE WAR NEWS

Foxholes are considered places of relative safety on the battlefield, but Pfc. Ernest E. Lehman of Warda found otherwise. A German Messerschmidt strafed his position just before the occupation of St. Lo. The Nazi didn't get him, but it was too close for comfort. Later he was slightly wounded by shrapnel and transported back to England by plane.

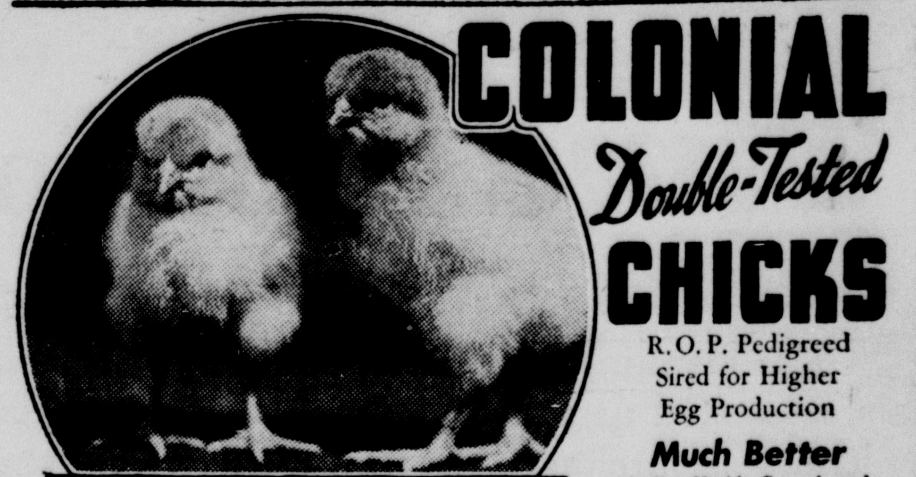

There are a lot of things to learn about living that many do not learn until it's too late.
